23 MPs take up cause of patients with rare genetic conditions

NEW DELHI

A group of 23 MPs from the Rajya Sabha and Union Health and Family Welfare Minister Mansukh Mandavia seeking the ministry's immediate intervention to provide treatment to eligible patients diagnosed with Group 3 (a) rare genetic conditions, like Lysosomal Storage Disorders (LSDs). The Parliamentary group also submitted a memorandum to Mandavia, drawing his attention to the urgent need for prioritisation of treatment for patients diagnosed with Group 3(a) rare genetic conditions. "Despite the notification of the much-awaited National Policy for Rare Diseases, 2021 in March this year, these patients continue to be at grave risk due to the lack of any sustainable funding mechanism for treatment," the MPs said.

BJP will invite third wave of pandemic: Yechury

ARITRA SINGHA
Kolkata

CPI (M) general secretary Sitaram Yechury on Friday said that by holding 1800 public meetings and Ahrwad Yatra the BJP is inviting the third wave of the pandemic as they have invited the second wave by conducting Kumbh Mela.

"There is a total mismanagement by the BJP led Central government during the pandemic and the Central government on the contrary said that no one had died due to scarcity of oxygen. It is a blatant lie. Now by organising Yatra and public meetings they will invite the third wave," claimed the senior parliament member.

The senior CPI (M) leader also alleged that despite several requests by the opposition leaders the government didn't allow discussion on the Yatra team. "The spyware is dangerous and this takes away the privacy of the people. Not just opposition leaders but even the Justice and lawyers phone was hacked. The central government should come out clear about their stand. The Opposition wanted the answer on it but failed," further mentioned Yechury adding that the Left Front will continue supporting Congress.

Bomma to do away with guard of honour

SHANKAR RAJ
Bengaluru

After doing away with the practice of offering bouquets, garlands and memorabilia at government events, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai now plans to ban the guard of honour given to him and other ministers at every district and important places during their visits.

"There is no need for a guard of honour at airports and other public places. It is not required at the district level whenever we visit. I will issue a direction soon," Bommai told media persons in Mangaluru. Bommai expressed his displeasure with the rousing welcome he got from district authorities in Mangaluru, including the customary guard of honour. "What was the need of it when the pandemic is raging and people are suffering," he reportedly asked the DC.
