GLOBAL BULLETIN

Birmingham gets first British Indian Lord Mayor

LONDON: Birmingham has got its first British-Indian Lord Mayor in Councillor Chaman Lal after the local councillors of the West Midlands city of England chose him to represent it as its first citizen. Lal, who is from the Ravidassia community of British Sikhs, was born in the village of Pakhowal in Hoshiarpur before he moved to the UK, where he has served as a local councillor for many years.

Court rejects Lai's plea to end his trial

HONG KONG: A Hong Kong court on Monday rejected a jailed publisher's request to terminate his national security trial, pressing ahead with a landmark case seen as part of Beijing's crackdown on the city's pro-democracy movement. Jimmy Lai, the 75-year-old founder of the now-defunct newspaper Apple Daily, faces up to life in prison if convicted under a Beijing-imposed national security law. His lawyers earlier filed an application to halt the trial, raising concerns that his case was being heard by three judges approved by the city's leader, instead of a jury.

China to send astronauts to Moon

BEIJING/JIUQUAN: China on Monday announced plans to send a manned mission to the moon by 2030 for lunar scientific exploration, amid its deepening space race with the West. The announcement was made by Lin Xiqiang, Deputy Director of the China Manned Space Agency (CMSA), as China is preparing to send a third set of astronauts to its space station on Tuesday.

Nepal honours Mt Everest sherpas

KATHMANDU: Nepal honoured record-holding Sherpa guides and climbers on Monday to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the first ascent of Mount Everest by Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay. Thousands of Sherpa guides and government officials participated in a rally here to mark the 70th anniversary. Among those honoured include Sherpa guides Kami Rita, who climbed Everest for a record 28 times, and Sanu Sherpa, who climbed all the world's 14 highest peaks twice.

ADB approves $350 mn loan to SL

COLOMBO: The Asian Development Bank (ADB) on Monday said it has approved a $350 million special policy-based loan to provide budget support to Sri Lanka for the stabilisation of its crisis-hit economy. The bank said that the programme is part of a broader package of financial assistance anchored by the International Monetary Fund's Extended Fund Facility for the country, which aims to stabilise the economy and lay the foundation for economic recovery and sustained growth, reports Xinhua news agency.

Explosions rattle Kyiv again

AP / Kyiv

Explosions rattled Kyiv during daylight Monday as Russian ballistic missiles took aim at the Ukrainian capital, hours after a more common nighttime barrage of the city by drones and cruise missiles.

Russian forces fired 11 ballistic and cruise missiles at Kyiv at about 11:30 am (0830 GMT), according to Ukraine's chief of staff, Valerii Zaluzhnyi.

All of them were shot down, he said, and puffs of white smoke could be seen in the blue sky over the city from street level.

Debris from the intercepted missiles fell in Kyiv's central and northern districts during the morning, landing in the middle of traffic on a city road and also starting a fire on a building's roof, the Kyiv military administration said. At least one civilian was reported hurt.

The blasts unnerved some locals, already under strain

Police experts examine fragments of a missile in Kyiv on Monday after being awakened by the night attack.

"After what happened last night, I react sharply to every siren now. I was terrified, and I'm still trembling," shared Alina Ksenofontova, a 50-year-old woman who took refuge in the Kyiv subway with her dog Bublik.

The central station, Tetralna, was crowded with sheltering locals.

Artem Zhlyia, a 24-year-old who provides legal services abroad, took his laptop with him and kept working underground.

"I heard two or three explosions, went to the bathroom, and then I heard five or seven more explosions. That's when I realised something terrible was happening," he said.

Like many others in the capital, he feels exhausted and stressed. However, he has no intentions of giving up and plans to attend his yoga class to recharge.

"This is certainly not enough to break us," he said. Russia used Iskander short-range missiles in the morning attack, the spokesman for Ukraine's air force said on local television.

Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and first lady Olena Zelenska both posted a video of what they said were frightened schoolchildren running and screaming down a Kyiv street toward a bomb shelter as sirens wail.

Erdogan calls for 'unity' after securing third term

IANIS / Ankara

After securing a historic third term as the President of Turkey, Recep Tayyip Erdogan on Monday pledged to build the "Century of Turkey" together with the nation and called for unity and solidarity.

The 69-year-old won Sunday's presidential runoff, which will now extended his tenure until 2028, reports Xinhua news agency.

"We should come together in unity and solidarity," he addressed supporters outside the presidential residence in the capital Ankara.

"Nobody has lost today, all 85 million won. Now is the time to unite and integrate around our national goals and national dreams... We are not the only winners. The winner is Turkey, the winner is our nation with all its segments, our democracy is the winner," he said, adding that he would be the president of the whole nation.

Erdogan promised to ease economic difficulties and said healing the "wounds" of the massive earthquakes on February 6 would be his priority.

On addressing problems caused by inflation, he said that compensating welfare loss is the "most urgent" priority of the government and that the inflation has been slowed.
